

Tour Begins in San Jose Del Cabo

DAY 1 – February 21st

Arrive at the Peninsula of Baja California at the International Airport of San Jose Del Cabo and transfer to La Paz via the East Cape. The city of La Paz is known by the locals as the “City of Illusion,” because of the way it will twist ones sense of direction. This makes the visitors feel as though sun has set in the east. La Paz was first discovered by a band of mutineers looking for an island of Amazons and pearls. Upon arrival in La Paz, you will be transferred to your hotel for welcome dinner and overnight. (D)

DAY 2 – February 22nd

Following an early in the morning breakfast, we will depart for Magdalena Bay. This deep water bay, with shores embroidered with mangrove thickets and salt marshes, is a nursery for sea and birdlife. The water teems with sardines and herring making this a perfect place for the Gray whales. Upon arrival at Puerto San Carlos, we will check into the hotel and have lunch at a local restaurant. Following lunch, we will begin our wildlife adventure navigating in the shallow lagoons for bird and whale watching. We will return to the hotel for dinner and overnight. (B, L, D)

DAY 3 – February 23rd

After breakfast we board our boats again for another great opportunity with the whales in the Magdalena Bay. We now return to La Paz arriving by early afternoon. A City tour, shopping and check in at the hotel for dinner and overnight. (B, L, D)

DAY 4 – February 24th

Today, after breakfast we depart to Bahia de Todos los Santos. This beautiful town has been distinguished for its cultural vocation, the home for painters, sculptors and artisans enjoying this small oasis with century old brick an adobe homes that line the narrow streets. Lunch will be at a local restaurant. Check in to hotel with evening at leisure to visit the city and many art galleries. Farewell dinner and overnight (B L D)

DAY 5 – February 25th

Breakfast at the hotel, then a leisurely return to San Jose del Cabo for a flight home. (B)
